

English Language Paper 1, May/June 2012

Question 1

You have spent about six weeks in your new school. Write a letter to your father telling him about your experiences so far.

Question 2

Write an article suitable for publication in your school magazine on the dangers of keeping bad company in school.

Question 3

Activities such as debates, drama and excursions are now rare in schools in your country. As the Senior Prefect, write a letter to your principal suggesting the revival of these activities and pointing out what students stand to gain from taking part in them

Question 4

You are the Chief Speaker in a debate on the topic: Violent video games should be banned.

Question 5

Write a story to illustrate the saying: Where there's a will, there's a way.

Question 6 & 7(COMPREHENSION)

Question 8(SUMMARY)

English Language Paper 1, Nov/Dec. 2012

Question 1

You have gained admission to a famous university. Write a letter to your wealthy uncle giving, at least, three reasons which can convince him to sponsor you.

Question 2

Write an article for publication in a national newspaper on the migration of people from the rural to the urban areas and what should be done to reduce it.

Question 3

The sanitary condition of your community is appalling and there are fears of an outbreak of communicable diseases. Write a letter to the chairman of your local government area, drawing his attention to the problem and suggesting ways of dealing with it.

Question 4

As the senior prefect, write a speech you would deliver on your school's Prize Giving Day. You should mention achievements as well as areas that need improvement.

Question 5

Write a story ending with the expression: Since then I have always tried to avoid bad company.

Question 6 & 7(COMPREHENSION)

Question 8(SUMMARY)